

Open House Planned Tonight For Bank of America Branch

An open house party to launch its new Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch will be held tonight from 6:30 to 9 by Bank of America.

Manager Verne L. Hughes and his staff are prepared to play host to a large turnout of Torrance area residents at the gala celebration, which features unusual displays, music, refreshments, souvenirs, a treasure chest contest, prizes, and complete tours of the branch. It will give visitors a chance to see just how a large branch opens for business tomorrow at 10 a.m.

A delegation of beach and harbor area civic officials including Betty Baker, "Miss Torrance of 1959", will meet with Manager Hughes and a contingent of senior officers from the bank's Los Angeles headquarters for the opening ceremonies. Leading the headquarters group is Jesse W. Tapp, chairman of the statewide bank's board of directors.

ONE OF THE most interesting displays will be the valuable coin collection "300 Years of American Coinage," owned by Cyrus Phillips, nationally known collector and lecturer. Some of the money dates back three centuries to the earliest American colonies. Phillips will be present to answer questions about the currency.

Another exhibit is a photograph and translation of the ancient will of Wah, an Egyptian will drawn up over 3700 years ago and written down on papyrus.

Lt. Cmdr. Richard D. Corke, 23701 Western Ave., was one of 39 Coast Guard reserve officers from the 11th, 12th, and 13th districts on the Pacific Coast to complete the first course in structural fire fighting in the west given recently at the University of Southern California.

Hawthorne branch is the 653rd in the bank's statewide system. It is located at 3804 Sepulveda Blvd.

THE TREASURE chest contest always adds interest to the opening days of a new branch. An old pirate's chest, filled with gold candy coins, is placed in the lobby of the branch and persons coming inside the building during July have a chance to win valuable prizes by guessing how many coins are in the chest. Savings account prizes of $50, $25, $10, and three of $5 will be awarded to those coming closest to the exact number. The contest ends on July 31 and winners will be announced soon after.
